My Dear Girl:

Today noon when I was to leave Fenton I just thought it was impossible. Oh: no but well every how I voted to stop back for Oh: that better hotel. As upon my arrival I made a carriage of the little bung for a place to stay and finally located my self in Mr. Fagan town with a farmhouse. Now things seem different. It is better. If my girl was just here with me & you could guess how much good that letter did that was true for me from you. I can't see Time seems long without you and I am so anxious for the time to go by rapidly. It seems it has been ages since I saw you and it not been more than a month.

Has it. & use too a month did it seem long at all. but now it is different. I just love all those good letters hear so with just as often as you like.

I sincerely
Albert
